

Airl radio station helps my community by providing inspirational music that is enjoyable for the whole family. Where in other radio stations, music is often filled with profanity, Airl keeps music clean.

Having the LPFM installed may cause my favorite radio station to go off the air and be replaced with something else. Airl is unique and the only station in my area of its kind. We don't need more of the same. Please support this radio station.